Sharing God's love, growing in faith, and creating community...

Be at Peace.
PRELUDE

WELCOME

Please stand as you are able.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

P Blessed be the holy Trinity, one God, the God of manna,
the God of miracles,
the God of mercy.

C Amen.

P Drawn to Christ and seeking God’s abundance, let us confess our sin.
God, our provider,

C help us.

It is hard to believe there is enough to share.
We question your ways when they differ from the ways of the world in which we live.
We turn to our own understanding rather than trusting in you.
We take offense at your teachings and your ways.

Turn us again to you.
Where else can we turn?
Share with us the words of eternal life and feed us for life in the world.

Amen.

P Beloved people of God:
in Jesus, the manna from heaven,
you are fed and nourished.
By Jesus, the worker of miracles,
there is always more than enough.
Through Jesus, the bread of life,
you are shown God’s mercy:
you are forgiven and loved into abundant life.

C Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

P  Let us pray: God of the covenant, in our baptism you call us to proclaim the coming of your kingdom. Give us the courage you gave the apostles, that we may faithfully witness to your love and peace in every circumstance of life, in the name of Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

FIRST READING: Ezekiel 2:1—5

1 [A voice] said to me: O mortal, stand up on your feet, and I will speak with you. 2 And when he spoke to me, a spirit entered into me and set me on my feet; and I heard him speaking to me. 3 He said to me, Mortal, I am sending you to the people of Israel, to a nation of rebels who have rebelled against me; they and their ancestors have transgressed against me to this very day. 4 The descendants are impudent and stubborn. I am sending you to them, and you shall say to them, “Thus says the Lord God.” 5 Whether they hear or refuse to hear (for they are a rebellious house), they shall know that there has been a prophet among them.

L The word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

PSALM 12 (Read responsively by whole verse.)

1 To you I lift up my eyes, to you enthroned in the heavens.

2 As the eyes of servants look to the hand of their masters, and the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress, so our eyes look to you, O LORD our God, until you show us your mercy.

3 Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy, for we have had more than enough of contempt,

4 too much of the scorn of the indolent rich, and of the derision of the proud.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION
GOSPEL: Mark 6:1—13
P The Holy Gospel according to Mark, the sixth chapter.
C Glory to you, O Lord.
1 [Jesus] came to his hometown, and his disciples followed him. 2 On the sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astounded. They said, “Where did this man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been given to him? What deeds of power are being done by his hands? 3 Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?” And they took offense at him. 4 Then Jesus said to them, “Prophets are not without honor, except in their hometown, and among their own kin, and in their own house.” 5 And he could do no deed of power there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and cured them. 6 And he was amazed at their unbelief.

Then he went about among the villages teaching. 7 He called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. 8 He ordered them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts; 9 but to wear sandals and not to put on two tunics. 10 He said to them, “Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place. 11 If any place will not welcome you and they refuse to hear you, as you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them.” 12 So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent. 13 They cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

HYMN OF THE DAY

“O Christ, Our light” (ELW 675) verses 1—3

Music on Next Page
1 O Christ, our light, O Radiance true, shine forth on 2 Fill with the radiance of your grace the wan-d’rers
3 Lord, open all reluctant ears and take a-4 Lord, let your mercy’s gentle ray shine down on 5 Make theirs with ours a single voice up-lift-ed, those estranged from you, and bring them to your home alost in error’s maze. Set free all those whose hearts and way the need-less fears of those who trem-ble to ex-others strayed away. To those in con-science wound-ed sore show heav-en’s wait-ing, o-pen door.

praise to you, O Lord, for bound-less grace.

Music: O JESU CHRISTE, WAHRES LICHT, Gesangbuch, Nürnberg, 1676
APOSTLES CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;
  he descended to the dead.
  On the third day he rose again;
  he ascended into heaven,
  he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
  the holy catholic Church,
  the communion of saints,
  the forgiveness of sins,
  the resurrection of the body,
  and the life everlasting. Amen

PRAYERS

A  One in the communion of saints and in the power of the Holy Spirit, we join our voices in prayer.

A brief silence.

A  Glorious God, you bend down to wash the feet of your disciples. Let the servant church arise in our teaching, our praying, our healing, and our doing. Make all your faithful people powerful in weakness and strong in grace. In your mercy,

C  receive our prayer.

A  Life-giving God, your fingers trace the heavens and your hands mold the earth. Where there is drought, bring nourishing rain. Where there is devastation from fire or flood, bring relief. Sustain the well-being of every living thing. In your mercy,

C  receive our prayer.

A  Merciful God, you speak and the nations listen. Open those who govern to the cries of all who journey with no food or shelter, particularly people fleeing violence, those seeking freedom, and those in search of community. In your mercy,
C receive our prayer.

A Gracious God, your embrace brings wholeness to those who are troubled. Anoint all who suffer in any way with the oil of healing and grant them renewal. In your mercy,

C receive our prayer.

A Welcoming God, in your presence strangers become companions and enemies become neighbors. Open our doors to those we have so easily shut out, particularly people who are different from us or who are marginalized by church or society. In your mercy,

C receive our prayer.

P Eternal God, you gather us into your house of many dwelling places. We give you thanks for our faithful departed. Inspire us by their lives of faith until, with them, we rest forever at our journey’s end. In your mercy,

C receive our prayer.

P Holy God, holy and merciful: into your outstretched arms we commend ourselves and all for whom we pray, trusting in the one who is the way, the truth, and the life, Jesus Christ our Savior and Lord.

C Amen.

SHARING PEACE

P The peace of Christ be with you always.

C And also with you.

Please be seated.

OFFERING

Thank you to everyone who faithfully continues to support Peace’s ministries. To give online, please use the online giving portal. If you wish to give by cash or check, please put your offering in the plate.

Special Offering. Each month, Peace designates a recipient of our special offering. Individuals may choose to give a special gift - over and above their usual offering to Peace - in support of a particular ministry.

July’s Special Offering is Village of Hope Haiti: Our Peace family has supported VOH for years. With increased gang violence in Haiti our mission has been adapted to best meet the needs of the children. VOH’s school in Ganthier, outside of Port Au Prince has been temporarily closed as the families have moved out the area for safety, but HOPE has not stopped. Through prayer and reflection by Directors VOH has adapted to the situation on the ground and focused our attention on two schools in desperate need of support in the north of Haiti where there is no gang violence but the need is great; Bord de Mer and Dubout.
OFFERTORY HYMN

"As the Grains of Wheat" (ELW 465)

Refrain, v. 1, refrain

As the grains of wheat once scattered on the hill were gathered into one to become our bread; so may all your people from all the ends of earth be gathered into one in you.

1 As this cup of blessing is shared within our midst, 2 Let this be a foretaste of all that is to come when may we share the presence of your love.

all creation shares this feast with you.

OFFERING PRAYER

P Jesus, Bread of life, you have set this table with your very self,
and called us to the feast of plenty.
Gather what has been sown among us,
and strengthen us in this meal.
Make us to be what we receive here,
your body for the life of the world

C Amen.
GREAT THANKSGIVING
P  The Lord be with you.
C  And also with you.
P  Lift up your hearts.
C  We lift them to the Lord.
P  Let us give thanks to the Lord, our God.
C  It is right to give our thanks and praise.
P  It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ; who on this day overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life. And so, with all the choirs of angels, with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

EUCARISTIC PRAYER
LORD’S PRAYER

P Lord, remember us in your kingdom and teach us to pray.

C Our Father in heaven,
    hallowed be your name,
    your kingdom come,
    your will be done,
    on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
    and the glory are yours,
    now and forever. Amen.

POSTLUDE

The Worship has ended. The Service begins.
Please join us in the Fellowship Hall for refreshments and conversation.

Ready to Bear Witness
Where does power come from? The usual answers—family connections, reputation, possessions—are all rejected in this reading from Mark’s gospel. Jesus’ power is not only independent of his family connection—it is hindered by it. While it isn’t entirely clear why the people of Nazareth reject Jesus, the fact that they do may sound familiar to us. How often do we find exactly what we expect when we encounter something new? How open are we, really, to the possibility that God’s power might come from an unexpected corner? The first part of today’s reading suggests that even miracles take two things: both divine power and willing witnesses.

Perhaps Jesus sends his disciples out stripped of their possession precisely so that they are ready to witness to God’s power in a new way. They go without any of the usual trappings of security or wealth, with no guarantee that their ministry will be received. In fact, Mark reminds us a few verses later (Mark 6:14-28) just how hostile the world can be to receiving the proclamation of the kingdom of God. John the Baptist will lose his life because of Herod’s resistance to repentance. Nevertheless, Jesus’ teaching continues to astound, and the word continues to spread.

The willingness to bear witness, even when we are not certain of answered prayer or mission success, is a theme that unites all this day’s readings. Even the Psalm, in its simple gaze of faith, invites us to let go of results in favor of relationship. Paul’s sometimes confusing logic about spiritual experiences becomes clear as he sums up God’s word to him: “My grace is sufficient for you . . . .” That is a powerful word, which can make almost any experience an opportunity to witness to Christ’s power.
